

WRAP 3
RACIAL JUSTICE
REPORTER: LA'SHAWN DONELSON
TRT: 0:34

THE MARCH FOR RACIAL JUSTICE BROUGHT ATTENTION TO POLICE BRUTALITY EXPERIENCED BY PEOPLE OF COLOR.

LA'SHAWN DONELSON REPORTS FROM THE NATIONAL MALL.

NATSOTFULLUP (0:05): (Black Lives Matter)

MARCHERS WALKED THROUGH D-C TO THE CAPITOL MALL
CARRYING SIGNS AND CHANTING FOR RACIAL EQUALITY.

PLANNING BEGAN IN JUNE, AFTER THE ACQUITTAL OF A
MINNESOTA POLICE OFFICER WHO FATALLY SHOT PHILANDO
CASTILE.

HIS MOTHER, VALERIE, CALLED FOR MORE POLICE ACCOUNTABILITY.

SOT (0:10): "My goal is that no one else gets killed by the police. They should know how to address the issue because they are the ones in control."

THE EVENT ALSO PARTNERED WITH THE MARCH FOR BLACK WOMEN.

LA'SHAWN DONELSON, D-A-G NEWS.

Sources

Valerie Castile, mother of Philando Castile

Interviewed at the March for Racial Justice on September 28, 2017

Instagram: i_am_king_24

Facebook: <http://facebook.com/valerie.castile/>